PHOENIX Items said to have been touched by Jesus during his last hours are coming to the Valley.

The "Relics of the Passion Tour" begins February 10th through the 12th.

A tour organizer with the Arizona Knights of Columbus says they're expecting long lines to view the two-thousand year-old items.

The items include a sliver of wood from the cross on Calvary, a piece of wood from the table of the Last Supper, a fragment of a thorn from the "crown of thorns," and a nail containing steel shavings from an original nail that held Christ on the cross.
